

BIOGRAPHY

Fronted by Nigerian born Seun Babatola and consisting of musicians from all over Wales, Codewalkers are a vibrant fusion of cultures, ideas and musical styles. Combining rock, rap and reggae into a live show full of energy the band can deal with serious issues lyrically - gender, violence and societal expectations - but their music will always make you move.

The band have an exciting time ahead having been chosen as one of twelve artists to be on the BBC Horizons scheme for 2019/2020. Other highlights include being chosen as BBC Introducing Wales 'Artist of the Week' and securing funding from Arts Council of Wales under the Launchpad 2018 scheme.

Codewalkers are a busy gigging band and love bringing their music to life on stage. Previous shows include: HUB Festival, Swansea Fringe Festival, Acapela, Big Cwtch, Truefest, Big Love, Cardiff Half Marathon, St Fagans Food Festival, Oxjam Cardiff.
